

Questions in Professional Latin Language

The Stages of Development of Latin Medical Terminology.

Latin Alphabet, Vowels, Diphthongs, Digraphs, and pronunciation rules of some consonant letters;

Review of Five Declinations of Nouns

Stem (Root) of Noun

The Dictionary Form of Noun

Uncoordinated Attribute

General review of the Adjective

I-II Declination of Adjectives, vocabulary

Coordinated Attribute

III Declination of Adjectives, vocabulary

Dictionary form of Adjective

Coordinated Attribute

I Declination of Nouns, vocabulary

The Structure of the Anatomical Terms

Second Declination of Nouns

Third Declination of Nouns

Clinical Terminology. General Review

The Introduction of Clinical Terminology.

The Structure of Multi-word Clinical Terms.

The Structure of Compound and Derived Clinical Terms.

Greek-Latin-English Roots, Prefixes and Suffixes (Part I)

Greek-Latin-English Roots, Prefixes and Suffixes (Part II)

