

IV Year exams topics in OB/GYN

1. Main principals of management for safe pregnancy and delivery
 2. General review of anatomy and physiology: female pelvis and neonatal anatomy
 3. Antenatal surveillance: pregnancy diagnosis and management : doctor and patient relationship, history taking, legal and ethical aspects, diagnostic tests, screening principles
 4. Diagnosis of pregnancy abnormalities: evaluation of fetus, gravidogram, U/S
 5. Rh conflict of mother and fetus: screening, monitoring, treatment
 6. Pregnancy abnormalities after 22 weeks of gestation: pregnancy associated hypertension, preeclampsia, eclampsia, HELLP syndrome.
 7. Hemorrhage related to First and second parts of pregnancy.
 8. Labor physiology and biomechanism, biochemical causes of delivery start, uterine changes during labor, partogram
 9. Effective methods of labor management and fetal monitoring
 10. Neonatal care
 11. Labor pain management
 12. Postpartum bleeding
 13. Physiology of puerperium and management
 14. Diagnostic methods in Gynecology
 15. Inflammatory disease of reproductive organs
 16. Uterine myoma
 17. Precancerous diseases of genitals and cervical cancer : cervical erosion, cervical polyps.
 18. Cervical leucoplakia and erithroplakia, cervical papilloma, cervical dysplasia, cervical cancer, leucoplakia of vulva, kraurosis of vulva.
 19. Family planning
 20. Principles of consulting patients during antenatal care and Family planning.
- Quiz
21. The bladder catheterization in females
 22. OB/GYN Surgery
 23. Gynecological examination and technique of taking pap-smear
 24. Insertion of Intra uterine devise
 - 25 active management of third stage of labor.

1. Choose which below listed plane indicates zero station
 - Plane between ischial spines (module 6)
 - Plane between ischial tuberositas
 - Plane below the low edge of the pubic bone
 - plane above the pubic bone

2. Which below mentioned is included in BISHOP scoring
 - Amniotic fluid run
 - fetal heart rate
 - Abdomen circumference
 - position of cervical os

3. Borders of the luteal phase of menstrual cycle are
 - From the onset of menses until the next onset of the bleeding
 - From the onset of menses until the surge of E2
 - From the onset of menses until the surge of LH
 - From the moment of LH surge until next menses

4. Among below listed choose the clinical symptom of gestational trophoblastic disease
 - Nausea
 - Tremor
 - Vaginal bleeding (module 19)
 - Blurred vision

5. Which below mentioned infection is the most leading cause of tubal infertility
 - Gardnerella
 - Vaginal candidosis
 - Vginal Trichomoniasis
 - Gonorrhoea