

MCQ Examples for Forensic Medicine

Post-mortem hypostasis is:

- A. Relaxed position of body after death
- B. The passive settling of red blood cells in the lowest areas of body *
- C. Massive hemorrhage in lower parts of body
- D. Enzymatic degradation of body after death
- E. Rapid drying of the body after death

Istanbul Protocol is:

- A. Manual for personal identification
- B. Manual on effective documentation of torture *
- C. International protocol for autopsy techniques
- D. Protocol for Evidence Obtaining
- E. CSI international manual and protocol

Stellate appearance wound, with everted edges and split flaps, is:

- A. Slash wound
- B. Stab wound
- C. Entrance wound
- D. Exit wound *
- E. Lacerated wound