

1. History of Medicine as a science and subject
2. Medicine in the ancient times: Mesopotamian Medicine - Ancient Sumeri and Babylone;
3. Medicine in Egypt; Views and links of ancient Georgian Medicine – archaeological findings; Medea – beginning of medicine and pharmacy
4. Chinese Medicine: Philosophical fundamentals; Indications and principals of main methods of treatment
5. Indian Medicine: Fundamentals of Veda, Unani and Sidha Medicine; Indian religion and philosophy – determinant of Indian medicine
6. Veda Medicine on sources of energy, pathology and constitutional types; Principals of Yoga
7. Persian Medicine: Avesta about pathology and death, healing and wellbeing.
8. Tibetan medicine: Nature of integral phenomenon; Polypharmacy and hollistic medicine.
9. Greek-Romanian Medicine: Hellenic culture – the cradle of world civilization and begining of modern medicine; Pythagor, Plato, Aristotle on the issues of death and life
10. Hippocrates – the “Father of Medicine”
11. The Old Testament and medicine. The main trends of Jewish phylosophy. Rules of Moses on medicine
12. Christianity and it’s role in the reformation of the world thinking, medical relations and approaches
13. Islamic Medicine: Roots and development of medieval medicine
14. Arabian scholars – al Birun, Averoes, Avenzohar and their contributions; Avicenna – the patriarch of world medicine
15. Medicine in medieval Europe: Scholastics and Galenizm. Educational centers in Paris, Bologna, Padua, Oxford
16. Medical School of Salerno
17. Renaissance in Western Europe. Revival of ancient Greek phylosofy. The method of trial in science (medicine)
18. Medicine in XVII-XIX cc’s Europe: Development of various branches, disciplines of medicine. Idealistic directions: Pragmatism, Relativizm and Positivizm – main trends of Gnoseology
19. Alternative, Traditional, Complementary, Unconventional etc. Medicine: Various thinking systems – Homeopathy, Isotherapy, Homotoxicologyetc
20. Modern Medicine: Main trends and directions, problems and World Policy on medicine

Please, answer above mentioned questions and send me back. Each answer ½ - 1 page.

Best wishes, Professor Ramaz Shengelia