

Exam questions on pediatric infectious diseases

1. Measles
2. Rubella
3. Chickenpox
4. Fifth disease
5. The sixth disease
6. Meningococcal infection
7. Scarlet fever
8. EBV infection
9. Diphtheria
10. Flu
11. Parainfluenza
12. Adenovirus infection
13. RSV infection
14. Rotavirus infection
15. Enterovirus infection
16. Salmonella infection
17. Shigella infection
18. Cholera
19. Escherichia coli Infections
20. Vaccination and vaccines
21. Antibiotics and antibiotic resistance
22. Nosocomial infections

Typical examination tests:

//// What kind of rash is typical for measles?

/// petechiae

/// vesicles

// macular-papular

/// erythema on cheeks

//// When the patient with meningococcal infection is already not contagious?

// after 24- since antibiotic therapy

/// after 2 days since initializing antibiotic therapy

/// after 1 week since initializing antibiotic therapy

/// after 10 days since initializing antibiotic therapy

//// Which of the listed antibiotics cause "red man syndrome"?

/// penicillin

/// Chloramphenicol

///Thrimethoprim-Sulphametoxazole

// vancomycin

///In which trimester of pregnancy Rubella is most dangerous?

// first trimester

// second, third trimester

// is dangerous in all trimesters

// Rubella is not dangerous in pregnancy

///Scarlet fever is caused by:

// meningococci

// staphylococci

// streptococci

// gonococci