

Typical tests for undergraduate pharmacy students in pharmaceutical ethics and deontology

1. From among the philosophers of the ancient world, who is the author of ethics as the epitome of moral and ethical principles?

a) Socrates

b) Aristotle

c) Plato

2. It is considered the birth period of medical ethics - as a philosophical science:

a) BC 13-12 centuries.

b) 7-6 centuries BC.

c) 4th century BC.

3. The country of early civilization where ethical and legal issues (norms) of medical and pharmaceutical activities were established by the well-known law.

a) Nebuchadnezzar - Babylon

b) Ashurbanipal - Assyria

c) Hammurabi - Assyria