

Exam questions for students of the Faculty of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation.

1. Geriatrics and gerontology
2. Global demographics of the elderly, functional and organic changes in the elderly, main health promoting activities for elderly people
3. Basic principles of geriatrics
4. Biological, psychological and social theories of aging, peculiarities of elderly people life style, position of society and family to older adults
5. Normal Aging and Common Disorders in the Elderly; Getting the History
6. Examination of an elderly patient
7. Adaptation to aging and pension age, health and social services, primary clinical problems related to aging and their identification.
8. Evaluation of mental and functional health in elderly, physiological and abnormal changes in the elderly age, problems of pension age, health and social services for older persons.
9. Common geriatric syndromes: delirium, dementia, depression, falling down, immobility, incontinence
10. Risk management in elderly treatment, nursing home, palliative care.