

Call for mobility at the University of Sassari (Italy) in the framework of the European Programme ERASMUS+ KA171 ICM

The Fall Semester 2023

For TSMU Medicine and Dentistry Faculty Students

Objective

The Erasmus+ Programme – Credit mobility for study offers the possibility to spend a period of studies and research at University of Sassari for Residents from the Tbilisi State Medical University.

Selected students will be awarded a scholarship, will attend courses and will use all the facilities of The University of Sassari on an equal basis as the enrolled students.

The Erasmus+ Programme is an initiative launched by the European Commission to fund mobilities among EU countries and between Programme Countries (EU countries) and Partner Countries (countries from the rest of the world).

The Programme also enhances the opportunities for cooperation and mobility with Partner Countries in the fields of higher education.

Mobility students will receive a grant as a contribution to their costs for travel and subsistence during the period of study and an amount to support them in covering their travel costs.

Mobility students can attend courses and use all the facilities available at the University of Sassari with no additional tuition fees. All learning activities approved in the Learning Agreement and completed successfully will be fully recognized at the home university.

The Home Universities will be in charge of selecting students and sending them to the University of Sassari (including preparation, monitoring and recognition related to the mobility period) and of announcing this call through their own web page and other publicity means.
